you.

A REGULAR Journal of Parliamentary Proceedings being promised in my Proposal for a Repository; and the King's Speech, together with the Addresses of the two Houses, and already appeared in the News-Papers, it is apprehended that Disappointment and Disgust may arise from my first Week's Publication, instead of Subjects, which from their Novelty, are much more likely to come fully at a Time when the future Existence of this Enterprize will be immediately depending. I have the Detail of the first and several succeeding Days Business in the House of Commons, with the Speeches of the Administration, and now present it to you without any Expence as a necessary Prelude to the Appearance of my professed Design is to furnish a complete Narrative of Transactions from the opening, to the Close of the Session. You will find this Introduction continued in the first and subsequent Numbers of the NEW-YORK GAZETTE, with such other Materials, as, with great Deference, I hope will secure it a favourable Reception from the List of Subscribers.

The generous Approbation of my Plan, and the uncommon Zeal exerted by my good Friends, in the Knowledge with the most perfect Gratitude, and I am,
